

Hunter New England Health Service Daily Temperature Log

Month: _____

Facility: _____ Name of Designated Person: _____ Contact Phone: _____

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
20
19
18
17
16
15
14
13
12
11
10
9
8
6
5
4
3
2
1
0
-1
-2
-3
-4
-5
-6
-7
-8
Initial

• Please record the minimum and maximum temperature twice daily, if possible, at the same times each day. Reset the thermometer after each recording.
 • If the refrigerator temperature is outside the cold chain (2- 8^o Celsius), please call the Immunisation Coordinator on 49246477
chris.carr@hnehealth.nsw.gov.au HNE facilities -please fax this chart to HNE Population Health at end of each month. Fax 4924 6490